CUSTOM ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES, INC. RECEIVES ARVADA CHAMBER BUSINESS OF THE YEAR AWARD

ARVADA, CO – Custom Environmental Services, Inc. (CES), an environmental contractor that offers environmental, abatement, industrial vacuum, and training services recently received the 2011 Business of the Year Award from the Arvada Chamber of Commerce, at the Chamber’s annual awards luncheon attended by more than 250 business and community leaders. CES President Jerry Marks accepted the award on behalf of the company from Honorable Arvada Mayor Marc Williams and Arvada Chamber of Commerce President Brett Haigler.

The Business of the Year Award recognizes an Arvada company that demonstrates community support and understands how the involvement and dedication of local leaders leads to a thriving community of engaged members and businesses.

“It’s especially an honor to receive this award from the Arvada community which has served as our central headquarters since our inception,” said Jerry Marks, president of Custom Environmental Services, Inc. “We are strong believers in getting involved and giving back to the communities where we work. We’re proud that our management and staff are integrated into the Arvada community from service clubs to non-profits, volunteering and sponsoring events.”

CES was recognized for its extensive and ongoing support of Arvada including involvement in Leadership Arvada and support of more than 20 different non-profit organizations including the Arvada Colts, American Heart Association, American Red Cross, Arvada Fire Department, Children’s Hospital, Colorado Coalition for the Homeless, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Jeffco Action Center, Ralston House, and several local high school and youth sports organizations.
